

Application for SMA Foundation 2012-2013 Scholarship Fund

for Member Company Employees and Their Dependents

Drivers, dock workers, mechanics, office personnel - they are among the thousands of people each day who contribute to a strong, efficient moving industry in the Southwest.

Many of these workers are or have dependents who are pursuing studies toward a higher education. The Southwest Movers Association Foundation Scholarship Fund would like to help some of these students in their efforts by providing some financial aid to Southwest Movers Association (SMA) company member employees or their dependents.

Recipients will be selected on the basis of their academic achievement, community involvement and financial need. The Foundation will provide financial assistance for college and trade school students. These funds may be used to meet such expenses as tuition, books, and housing.

The SMA Foundation is a non-profit educational, public relations, research and community service organization created by the Southwest Movers Association to promote the moving industry in the Southwest. SMA represents over 300 movers and associate industry members operating in the Southwest.

Eligibility: Applicants must be high school seniors or college students. They must be an owner, employee or a dependent of someone employed by a company with membership in the Southwest Movers Association. Available to all SMA members, movers and associates, except NAIT award is mover only.

Application: A student seeking a scholarship should complete the attached application form and send it to the SMA Scholarship Fund along with a recent photograph, a certified copy of your transcript (last mid-term is acceptable), one to three letters of recommendation and an accompanying letter of intent. This letter should include information on current and planned studies, career goals, interest, and the reason for applying for the scholarship.

Selection: Recipients will be chosen by the members of the SMA Foundation Board of Trustees. The funds will be sent directly to the recipient's school.

Deadline for applying: Applications must be received by Thursday, May 31, 2012, for scholarships to be awarded for the 2012-2013 Academic Year.
